Thanks for your support. I will point out to the rest of DuPont that I was not an isolated case.

Mike,

I'm sharing the email thread below with you because I read today that Linda Cumberbatch called you a liar from her first published update to her campaign website, stating that no one has written her to complain about her unsolicited emails. That is quite remarkable and a bold statement especially when I responded to the same Linda Cumberbatch email (see below) to ask that I be removed from her email distribution. ?I also never got a response from "electlindc@gmail.com". ?I did however get more campaign mail from Linda, and now I guess I will keep getting SPAM'ed by Linda since there is no way to stop it other than delete it.

On her website now, as a response to you, she states there is no way to stop her because her mails are political in nature and they are exempt from SPAM communication laws. ?Where did this law come from? ?I disagree, I get plenty of email and know how the system works - Normally you have to ask to be added, and can later ask to be removed. ?I never asked to be added, and not being able to get my address dropped from her list is not right.

I cannot believe that a council candidate would come out and lie in her first communication exchange with the voters of DuPont. ?Please share this one on your website if you need to. ?It is important that the city know who is being dishonest here.

Sincerely,
Scott

Dear Linda Cumberbatch,

Why am I getting this email?? I did not subscribe to get mails or notices about your election.? Can you please tell me where you obtained this email address?

SSEmail1

I need to know who is sharing my email address for purposes of campaigning here in DuPont.? Never in the past, including presidential elections, have I received emails without first subscribing to the candidate for campaign messages.? Something is not right about you sending me this message.

Please share with me how you decided who to send email to for this purpose.

Sincerely,
Scott Schenck
